

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES¹

– Applied to Assyrian in Armenia –

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Assyrian, within the territories in which Assyrian is used and according to the situation of Assyrian, Armenia shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
 - a the recognition of Assyrian as an expression of cultural wealth;
 - b the respect of the geographical area of Assyrian in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Assyrian;
 - c the need for resolute action to promote Assyrian in order to safeguard it;
 - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Assyrian, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
 - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Assyrian and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
 - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Assyrian at all appropriate stages;
 - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Assyrian living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
 - h the promotion of study and research on Assyrian at universities or equivalent institutions;
 - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Assyrian used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Armenia undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Assyrian and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Assyrian aimed at promoting equality between the users of Assyrian and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Assyrian among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Assyrian, Armenia shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Assyrian. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Assyrian.

- g to support the training of journalists and other staff for media using Assyrian.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Armenia undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to Assyrian, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to Assyrian. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of Assyrian are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Armenia undertakes, within the territory in which Assyrian is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:
 - a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to Assyrian and foster the different means of access to works produced in Assyrian;

- b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in Assyrian by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;
- c to foster access in Assyrian to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Assyrian language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
 - f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of Assyrian in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Assyrian is traditionally used, Armenia undertakes, if the number of users of Assyrian justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Assyrian and the culture it reflects.

- e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Assyrian, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;
- g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Assyrian;
- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Assyrian.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, Armenia undertakes, within the whole country:
- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Assyrian, at least between users of Assyrian;
 - c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Assyrian in connection with economic or social activities;

- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Assyrian in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Assyrian by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Armenia undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Assyrian is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Assyrian;
- c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Assyrian persons using Assyrian who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;

- a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Assyrian in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
- d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Assyrian;
- e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Assyrian.

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Armenia undertakes:

- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Assyrian is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Assyrian in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of Assyrian, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Assyrian is used in identical or similar form.
