

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES¹

– Applied to Danish in Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) –

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Danish, within the territories in which Danish is used and according to the situation of Danish, Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
 - a the recognition of Danish as an expression of cultural wealth;
 - b the respect of the geographical area of Danish in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Danish;
 - c the need for resolute action to promote Danish in order to safeguard it;
 - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Danish, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
 - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Danish and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
 - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Danish at all appropriate stages;
 - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Danish living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
 - h the promotion of study and research on Danish at universities or equivalent institutions;
 - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Danish used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Danish and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Danish aimed at promoting equality between the users of Danish and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Danish among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Danish, Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Danish. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Danish.

- f i to cover the additional costs of those media which use Danish, wherever the law provides for financial assistance in general for the media; or
- g to support the training of journalists and other staff for media using Danish.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to Danish, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to Danish. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.

- 3 Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of Danish are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes, within the territory in which Danish is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:

- c to foster access in Danish to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

- a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to Danish and foster the different means of access to works produced in Danish;
b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in Danish by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Danish language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
 - e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Danish, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;
 - f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of Danish in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;
 - g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Danish;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Danish is traditionally used, Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes, if the number of users of Danish justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- 3 Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Danish and the culture it reflects.

- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Danish.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes, within the whole country:
- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Danish in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;

- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Danish, at least between users of Danish;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Danish in connection with economic or social activities;
 - d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Danish by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Danish is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Danish persons using Danish who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;

- a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Danish in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
- b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Danish;
- d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Danish;
- e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Danish.

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- Germany (Land Schleswig-Holstein) undertakes:
- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Danish is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Danish in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
 - b for the benefit of Danish, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Danish is used in identical or similar form.
