

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER
FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES<sup>1</sup>

– Applied to German in Slovakia –

[...]

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of German, within the territories in which German is used and according to the situation of German, Slovakia shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
  - a the recognition of German as an expression of cultural wealth;
  - b the respect of the geographical area of German in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of German;
  - c the need for resolute action to promote German in order to safeguard it;
  - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of German, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
  - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using German and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
  - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of German at all appropriate stages;
  - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of German living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
  - h the promotion of study and research on German at universities or equivalent institutions;
  - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for German used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Slovakia undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of German and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of German aimed at promoting equality between the users of German and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Slovakia undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to German among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to German, Slovakia shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use German. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to German.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Slovakia undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to German, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to German. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.
- 3 Slovakia undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of German are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Slovakia undertakes, within the territory in which German is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:
  - a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to German and foster the different means of access to works produced in German;
  - b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in German by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;
  - c to foster access in German to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the German language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;

  - f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of German in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;
  - g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in German;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which German is traditionally used, Slovakia undertakes, if the number of users of German justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- 3 Slovakia undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for German and the culture it reflects.

- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in German.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, Slovakia undertakes, within the whole country:
- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of German in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;
  - b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of German, at least between users of German;
  - c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of German in connection with economic or social activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Slovakia undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which German is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in German.

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of German by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
  - a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of German in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
  - b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of German;
  - c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in German persons using German who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;
  - d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in German;

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Slovakia undertakes:

- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which German is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of German in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of German, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory German is used in identical or similar form.
