- 2 Switzerland (Bosco-Gurin in Ticino) undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of German and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of German aimed at promoting equality between the users of German and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Switzerland (Bosco-Gurin in Ticino) undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to German among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
