

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES¹

– Applied to Greek in Armenia –

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Greek, within the territories in which Greek is used and according to the situation of Greek, Armenia shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
 - a the recognition of Greek as an expression of cultural wealth;
 - b the respect of the geographical area of Greek in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Greek;
 - c the need for resolute action to promote Greek in order to safeguard it;
 - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Greek, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
 - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Greek and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
 - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Greek at all appropriate stages;
 - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Greek living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
 - h the promotion of study and research on Greek at universities or equivalent institutions;
 - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Greek used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Armenia undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Greek and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Greek aimed at promoting equality between the users of Greek and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Greek among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Greek, Armenia shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Greek. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Greek.

- h to provide the basic and further training of the teachers required to implement those of paragraphs a to g accepted by Armenia;
- i to set up a supervisory body or bodies responsible for monitoring the measures taken and progress achieved in establishing or developing the teaching of Greek and for drawing up periodic reports of their findings, which will be made public.

2 With regard to education and in respect of territories other than those in which Greek is traditionally used, Armenia undertakes, if the number of users of Greek justifies it, to allow, encourage or provide teaching in or of Greek at all the appropriate stages of education.

Article 9 – Judicial authorities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 Armenia undertakes, in respect of those judicial districts in which the number of residents using Greek justifies the measures specified below, according to the situation of Greek and on condition that the use of the facilities afforded by the present paragraph is not considered by the judge to hamper the proper administration of justice:
- a in criminal proceedings:
 - ii to guarantee the accused the right to use Greek; and/or
 - iii to provide that requests and evidence, whether written or oral, shall not be considered inadmissible solely because they are formulated in Greek; and/or
 - iv to produce, on request, documents connected with legal proceedings in Greek, if necessary by the use of interpreters and translations involving no extra expense for the persons concerned;
 - b in civil proceedings:
 - ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Greek without thereby incurring additional expense; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
 - c in proceedings before courts concerning administrative matters:
 - i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Greek; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
 - d to take steps to ensure that the application of sub-paragraphs i and iii of paragraphs b and c above and any necessary use of interpreters and translations does not involve extra expense for the persons concerned.
- 2 Armenia undertakes:
- a not to deny the validity of legal documents drawn up within the State solely because they are drafted in Greek; or
- a i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Greek; and/or
- b i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Greek; and/or
- iii to allow documents and evidence to be produced in Greek,
- c ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Greek without thereby incurring additional expense; and/or
- iii to allow documents and evidence to be produced in Greek,

ACCEPTED

- 3 Armenia undertakes to make available in Greek the most important national statutory texts and those relating particularly to users of Greek, unless they are otherwise provided.

NOT ACCEPTED

- b not to deny the validity, as between the parties, of legal documents drawn up within the country solely because they are drafted in Greek, and to provide that they can be invoked against interested third parties who are not users of Greek on condition that the contents of the document are made known to them by the person(s) who invoke(s) it; or
- c not to deny the validity, as between the parties, of legal documents drawn up within the country solely because they are drafted in Greek.

Article 10 – Administrative authorities and public services

ACCEPTED

- 1 Within the administrative districts of the State in which the number of residents who are users of Greek justifies the measures specified below and according to the situation of Greek, Armenia undertakes, as far as this is reasonably possible:

ii to apply existing measures for financial assistance also to audiovisual productions in Greek;
- g to support the training of journalists and other staff for media using Greek.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Armenia undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to Greek, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to Greek. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of Greek are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Armenia undertakes, within the territory in which Greek is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:
 - a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to Greek and foster the different means of access to works produced in Greek;

- b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in Greek by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;
- c to foster access in Greek to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Greek language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
 - f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of Greek in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Greek is traditionally used, Armenia undertakes, if the number of users of Greek justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- 3 Armenia undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Greek and the culture it reflects.

- e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Greek, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;
- g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Greek;
- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Greek.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Greek, at least between users of Greek;
 - c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Greek in connection with economic or social activities;

- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Greek in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Greek by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Armenia undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Greek is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Greek;
- c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Greek persons using Greek who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;

- a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Greek in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
- d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Greek;
- e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Greek.

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Armenia undertakes:

- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Greek is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Greek in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of Greek, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Greek is used in identical or similar form.
