

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER
FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES<sup>1</sup>

– Applied to Romanian in Serbia –

[...]

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Romanian, within the territories in which Romanian is used and according to the situation of Romanian, Serbia shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
  - a the recognition of Romanian as an expression of cultural wealth;
  - b the respect of the geographical area of Romanian in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Romanian;
  - c the need for resolute action to promote Romanian in order to safeguard it;
  - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Romanian, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
  - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Romanian and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
  - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Romanian at all appropriate stages;
  - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Romanian living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
  - h the promotion of study and research on Romanian at universities or equivalent institutions;
  - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Romanian used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 Serbia undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Romanian and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Romanian aimed at promoting equality between the users of Romanian and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Romanian among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Romanian, Serbia shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Romanian. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Romanian.

ACCEPTED

- d iv to apply one of the measures provided for under i to iii above at least to those pupils who, or where appropriate whose families, so wish in a number considered sufficient;
- e ii to provide facilities for the study of Romanian as university and higher education subjects; or
- f iii if the public authorities have no direct competence in the field of adult education, to favour and/or encourage the offering of Romanian as subjects of adult and continuing education;
- g to make arrangements to ensure the teaching of the history and the culture which is reflected by Romanian;

NOT ACCEPTED

- d i to make available technical and vocational education in Romanian; or
  - ii to make available a substantial part of technical and vocational education in Romanian; or
  - iii to provide, within technical and vocational education, for the teaching of Romanian as an integral part of the curriculum; or
  - e i to make available university and other higher education in Romanian; or
  - iii if, by reason of the role of the State in relation to higher education institutions, sub-paragraphs i and ii cannot be applied, to encourage and/or allow the provision of university or other forms of higher education in Romanian or of facilities for the study of Romanian as university or higher education subjects;
  - f i to arrange for the provision of adult and continuing education courses which are taught mainly or wholly in Romanian; or
  - ii to offer Romanian as subjects of adult and continuing education; or
  - h to provide the basic and further training of the teachers required to implement those of paragraphs a to g accepted by Serbia;
  - i to set up a supervisory body or bodies responsible for monitoring the measures taken and progress achieved in establishing or developing the teaching of Romanian and for drawing up periodic reports of their findings, which will be made public.
- 2 With regard to education and in respect of territories other than those in which Romanian is traditionally used, Serbia undertakes, if the number of users of Romanian justifies it, to allow, encourage or provide teaching in or of Romanian at all the appropriate stages of education.

Article 9 – Judicial authorities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 Serbia undertakes, in respect of those judicial districts in which the number of residents using Romanian justifies the measures specified below, according to the situation of Romanian and on condition that the use of the facilities afforded by the present paragraph is not considered by the judge to hamper the proper administration of justice:
  - a in criminal proceedings:
    - ii to guarantee the accused the right to use Romanian; and/or
    - iii to provide that requests and evidence, whether written or oral, shall not be considered inadmissible solely because they are formulated in Romanian; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations involving no extra expense for the persons concerned;
  - b in civil proceedings:
    - ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Romanian without thereby incurring additional expense; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
  - c in proceedings before courts concerning administrative matters:
    - ii to allow, whenever a litigant has to appear in person before a court, that he or she may use Romanian without thereby incurring additional expense; and/orif necessary by the use of interpreters and translations;
  - d to take steps to ensure that the application of sub-paragraphs i and iii of paragraphs b and c above and any necessary use of interpreters and translations does not involve extra expense for the persons concerned.
- 2 Serbia undertakes:
  - a not to deny the validity of legal documents drawn up within the State solely because they are drafted in Romanian; or

- a i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Romanian; and/or
- iv to produce, on request, documents connected with legal proceedings in Romanian,
- b i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Romanian; and/or
- iii to allow documents and evidence to be produced in Romanian,
- c i to provide that the courts, at the request of one of the parties, shall conduct the proceedings in Romanian; and/or
- iii to allow documents and evidence to be produced in Romanian,

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- b not to deny the validity, as between the parties, of legal documents drawn up within the country solely because they are drafted in Romanian, and to provide that they can be invoked against interested third parties who are not users of Romanian on condition that the contents of the document are made known to them by the person(s) who invoke(s) it; or
  - c not to deny the validity, as between the parties, of legal documents drawn up within the country solely because they are drafted in Romanian.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to make available in Romanian the most important national statutory texts and those relating particularly to users of Romanian, unless they are otherwise provided.

Article 10 – Administrative authorities and public services

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 Within the administrative districts of the State in which the number of residents who are users of Romanian justifies the measures specified below and according to the situation of Romanian, Serbia undertakes, as far as this is reasonably possible:
- a
    - iv to ensure that users of Romanian may submit oral or written applications in Romanian; or
    - v to ensure that users of Romanian may validly submit a document in Romanian;
  - c to allow the administrative authorities to draft documents in Romanian.
- 2 In respect of the local and regional authorities on whose territory the number of residents who are users of Romanian is such as to justify the measures specified below, Serbia undertakes to allow and/or encourage:

- a
    - i to ensure that the administrative authorities use Romanian; or
    - ii to ensure that such of its officers as are in contact with the public use Romanian in their relations with persons applying to them in Romanian; or
    - iii to ensure that users of Romanian may submit oral or written applications and receive a reply in Romanian; or
  - b to make available widely used administrative texts and forms for the population in Romanian or in bilingual versions;
- a the use of Romanian within the framework of the regional or local authority;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- b the possibility for users of Romanian to submit oral or written applications in Romanian;
  - c the publication by regional authorities of their official documents also in Romanian;
  - d the publication by local authorities of their official documents also in Romanian;

  - g the use or adoption, if necessary in conjunction with the name in the official language(s), of traditional and correct forms of place-names in Romanian.
- 3 With regard to public services provided by the administrative authorities or other persons acting on their behalf, Serbia undertakes, within the territory in which Romanian is used, in accordance with the situation of Romanian and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- c to allow users of Romanian to submit a request in Romanian.
- 4 With a view to putting into effect those provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 accepted by them, Serbia undertakes to take one or more of the following measures:
- c compliance as far as possible with requests from public service employees having a knowledge of Romanian to be appointed in the territory in which Romanian is used.
- 5 Serbia undertakes to allow the use or adoption of family names in Romanian, at the request of those concerned.

- e the use by regional authorities of Romanian in debates in their assemblies, without excluding, however, the use of the official language(s) of the State;
- f the use by local authorities of Romanian in debates in their assemblies, without excluding, however, the use of the official language(s) of the State;

- a to ensure that Romanian is used in the provision of the service; or
- b to allow users of Romanian to submit a request and receive a reply in Romanian; or

- a translation or interpretation as may be required;
- b recruitment and, where necessary, training of the officials and other public service employees required;

Article 11 – Media

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 Serbia undertakes, for the users of Romanian within the territories in which Romanian is spoken, according to the situation of Romanian, to the extent that the public authorities, directly or indirectly, are competent, have power or play a role in this field, and respecting the principle of the independence and autonomy of the media:
  - a to the extent that radio and television carry out a public service mission:
    - iii to make adequate provision so that broadcasters offer programmes in Romanian;
  - b ii to encourage and/or facilitate the broadcasting of radio programmes in Romanian on a regular basis;
  - c ii to encourage and/or facilitate the broadcasting of television programmes in Romanian on a regular basis;
  - d to encourage and/or facilitate the production and distribution of audio and audiovisual works in Romanian;
  - e i to encourage and/or facilitate the creation and/or maintenance of at least one newspaper in Romanian; or
  - f ii to apply existing measures for financial assistance also to audiovisual productions in Romanian;

- a i to ensure the creation of at least one radio station and one television channel in Romanian; or
- ii to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of at least one radio station and one television channel in Romanian; or
- b i to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of at least one radio station in Romanian; or
- c i to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of at least one television channel in Romanian; or
- e ii to encourage and/or facilitate the publication of newspaper articles in Romanian on a regular basis;
- f i to cover the additional costs of those media which use Romanian, wherever the law provides for financial assistance in general for the media; or
- g to support the training of journalists and other staff for media using Romanian.

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 2 Serbia undertakes to guarantee freedom of direct reception of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in a language used in identical or similar form to Romanian, and not to oppose the retransmission of radio and television broadcasts from neighbouring countries in such a language. It further undertakes to ensure that no restrictions will be placed on the freedom of expression and free circulation of information in the written press in a language used in identical or similar form to Romanian. The exercise of the above-mentioned freedoms, since it carries with it duties and responsibilities, may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are necessary in a democratic society, in the interests of national security, territorial integrity or public safety, for the prevention of disorder or crime, for the protection of health or morals, for the protection of the reputation or rights of others, for preventing disclosure of information received in confidence, or for maintaining the authority and impartiality of the judiciary.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to ensure that the interests of the users of Romanian are represented or taken into account within such bodies as may be established in accordance with the law with responsibility for guaranteeing the freedom and pluralism of the media.

Article 12 – Cultural activities and facilities

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to cultural activities and facilities – especially libraries, video libraries, cultural centres, museums, archives, academies, theatres and cinemas, as well as literary work and film production, vernacular forms of cultural expression, festivals and the culture industries, including inter alia the use of new technologies – Serbia undertakes, within the territory in which Romanian is used and to the extent that the public authorities are competent, have power or play a role in this field:
  - a to encourage types of expression and initiative specific to Romanian and foster the different means of access to works produced in Romanian;
  - b to foster the different means of access in other languages to works produced in Romanian by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;
  - c to foster access in Romanian to works produced in other languages by aiding and developing translation, dubbing, post-synchronisation and subtitling activities;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- f to encourage direct participation by representatives of the users of Romanian in providing facilities and planning cultural activities;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Romanian is traditionally used, Serbia undertakes, if the number of users of Romanian justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Romanian language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
- e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Romanian, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;
- g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Romanian;
- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Romanian.
- 3 Serbia undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Romanian and the culture it reflects.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, Serbia undertakes, within the whole country:
- c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Romanian in connection with economic or social activities;

- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Romanian in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;
- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Romanian, at least between users of Romanian;

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Romanian by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, Serbia undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Romanian is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
  - a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Romanian in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
  - b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Romanian;
  - c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Romanian persons using Romanian who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;
  - d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Romanian;
  - e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Romanian.

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

Serbia undertakes:

- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Romanian is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Romanian in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of Romanian, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Romanian is used in identical or similar form.
