

THE EUROPEAN CHARTER FOR REGIONAL OR MINORITY LANGUAGES¹

– Applied to Slovak in the Czech Republic –

PART II

OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES
PURSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPH 1

Article 7 – Objectives and principles

- 1 In respect of Slovak, within the territories in which Slovak is used and according to the situation of Slovak, the Czech Republic shall base its policies, legislation and practice on the following objectives and principles:
 - a the recognition of Slovak as an expression of cultural wealth;
 - b the respect of the geographical area of Slovak in order to ensure that existing or new administrative divisions do not constitute an obstacle to the promotion of Slovak;
 - c the need for resolute action to promote Slovak in order to safeguard it;
 - d the facilitation and/or encouragement of the use of Slovak, in speech and writing, in public and private life;
 - e the maintenance and development of links, in the fields covered by this Charter, between groups using Slovak and other groups in the State employing a language used in identical or similar form, as well as the establishment of cultural relations with other groups in the State using different languages;
 - f the provision of appropriate forms and means for the teaching and study of Slovak at all appropriate stages;
 - g the provision of facilities enabling non-speakers of Slovak living in the area where it is used to learn it if they so desire;
 - h the promotion of study and research on Slovak at universities or equivalent institutions;
 - i the promotion of appropriate types of transnational exchanges, in the fields covered by this Charter, for Slovak used in identical or similar form in two or more States.
- 2 The Czech Republic undertakes to eliminate, if it has not yet done so, any unjustified distinction, exclusion, restriction or preference relating to the use of Slovak and intended to discourage or endanger the maintenance or development of it. The adoption of special measures in favour of Slovak aimed at promoting equality between the users of Slovak and the rest of the population or which take due account of their specific conditions is not considered to be an act of discrimination against the users of more widely-used languages.
- 3 The Czech Republic undertakes to promote, by appropriate measures, mutual understanding between all the linguistic groups of the country and in particular the inclusion of respect, understanding and tolerance in relation to Slovak among the objectives of education and training provided within the country and encouragement of the mass media to pursue the same objective.
- 4 In determining its policy with regard to Slovak, the Czech Republic shall take into consideration the needs and wishes expressed by the groups which use Slovak. It is encouraged to establish bodies, if necessary, for the purpose of advising the authorities on all matters pertaining to Slovak.

 - g to encourage and/or facilitate the creation of a body or bodies responsible for collecting, keeping a copy of and presenting or publishing works produced in Slovak;
- 2 In respect of territories other than those in which Slovak is traditionally used, the Czech Republic undertakes, if the number of users of Slovak justifies it, to allow, encourage and/or provide appropriate cultural activities and facilities in accordance with the preceding paragraph.
- 3 The Czech Republic undertakes to make appropriate provision, in pursuing its cultural policy abroad, for Slovak and the culture it reflects.

- d to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities of various kinds make appropriate allowance for incorporating the knowledge and use of the Slovak language and culture in the undertakings which they initiate or for which they provide backing;
- e to promote measures to ensure that the bodies responsible for organising or supporting cultural activities have at their disposal staff who have a full command of Slovak, as well as of the language(s) of the rest of the population;
- h if necessary, to create and/or promote and finance translation and terminological research services, particularly with a view to maintaining and developing appropriate administrative, commercial, economic, social, technical or legal terminology in Slovak.

Article 13 – Economic and social life

ACCEPTED

NOT ACCEPTED

- 1 With regard to economic and social activities, the Czech Republic undertakes, within the whole country:
- c to oppose practices designed to discourage the use of Slovak in connection with economic or social activities;

- a to eliminate from its legislation any provision prohibiting or limiting without justifiable reasons the use of Slovak in documents relating to economic or social life, particularly contracts of employment, and in technical documents such as instructions for the use of products or installations;
- b to prohibit the insertion in internal regulations of companies and private documents of any clauses excluding or restricting the use of Slovak, at least between users of Slovak;

ACCEPTED

- 2 With regard to economic and social activities, the Czech Republic undertakes, in so far as the public authorities are competent, within the territory in which Slovak is used, and as far as this is reasonably possible:
- e to arrange for information provided by the competent public authorities concerning the rights of consumers to be made available in Slovak.

NOT ACCEPTED

- d to facilitate and/or encourage the use of Slovak by means other than those specified in the above sub-paragraphs.
- a to include in its financial and banking regulations provisions which allow, by means of procedures compatible with commercial practice, the use of Slovak in drawing up payment orders (cheques, drafts, etc.) or other financial documents, or, where appropriate, to ensure the implementation of such provisions;
- b in the economic and social sectors directly under its control (public sector), to organise activities to promote the use of Slovak;
- c to ensure that social care facilities such as hospitals, retirement homes and hostels offer the possibility of receiving and treating in Slovak persons using Slovak who are in need of care on grounds of ill-health, old age or for other reasons;
- d to ensure by appropriate means that safety instructions are also drawn up in Slovak;

Article 14 – Transfrontier exchanges

ACCEPTED

- The Czech Republic undertakes:
- a to apply existing bilateral and multilateral agreements which bind them with the States in which Slovak is used in identical or similar form, or if necessary to seek to conclude such agreements, in such a way as to foster contacts between the users of Slovak in the States concerned in the fields of culture, education, information, vocational training and permanent education;
- b for the benefit of Slovak, to facilitate and/or promote co-operation across borders, in particular between regional or local authorities in whose territory Slovak is used in identical or similar form.
